FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 26.

A BEAR LOOSE-EXCITING SCENE.-Yesterday afternoon one of the bears belonging to Mike Lipman's show got loose in the ring just before the performance. He at first evinced no signs of anger, nor was it feared that he could not be managed. The crowd, however, in the tent became very much excited, and kicked up such a row that Bruin made a rush and got out of the tent. He was pursued by a large crowd of boys and freedmen, and at last caught on Marshall street by means of throw- square. ing a plank over his back, and placing weight enough on it to bear him down. During the chase, Mr. Townsend, the keeper

Mr. Jones, one of the attaches of the Circus, was bitten in the leg. A negro was well hug bonds for the deterred payment.

W. ARTHUR TAYLOR, W. ARTHUR TAYLOR, S. FERGUSON BEACH. ged, badly scared, but not badly hurt. -Rich. Dispatch.

THE END. - A communication was recently handed us for publication by a colored man of this city, who requested us with so much eagerness to withhold his name, that we were curious to know the reason. He replied that it would be as much as his life was worth to have it known. He then informed me of the existence of an obligation among the Confiscationence of an obligation among the Confiscationists, pledging them to the most degrading slavery-a slavery of mind and will-and bindorganization as enemies. - Rich.
